AMERICAN AIRLINES CENTER

Since opening in July 2001, the American Airlines Center has set a new standard for sports and entertainment and has become the premier venue of the South. It's grand complex with sweeping vistas and inviting passages comprise five concourses, 142 luxury suites and room for 18,532 hockey fans. The American Airlines Center has not stopped gaining recognition, having been recently rated one of the best facilities in the country by its fans in the "Voice of the Fan" JD Powers and Associates Survey.

Designed by world-renowned architect David M. Schwarz and Dallas based HKS, Inc., the American Airlines Center is a combination of traditional architecture and hi-tech wizardry. Outside, the signature arches are warm and inviting, Inside, the retractable seating brings the bowl in closer to the action, allowing fans a more intimate experience and exceptional sight lines. With more than four years of experience under it's belt, the American Airlines Center is bringing the hottest sports and entertainment to Dallas!

In its four-year history, the American Airlines Center has hosted over to 6 million guests at a variety of sporting and entertainment events. Over 50 musical artists have performed including sold out performances from The Eagles, The Rolling Stones, U2, Paul McCartney, Cher, Billy Joel, Elton John, Fleetwood Mac, George Strait, Bruce Springsteen and Usher, to name a few. It has also hosted family shows such as Disney on Ice, Stars on Ice, Champions on Ice, Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey and has received The Most Valuable Player Award three years in a row from The Harlem Globetrotters for the highest attendance and gross for the Blue Tour. World Wrestling Entertainment has become a frequent guest at the Center, producing Monday Night RAW, Smackdown and house shows eight times since it's opening. The American Airlines Center has been no stranger to major sporting events in addition to the Dallas Stars, Dallas Mavericks and Dallas Desperados, the 2002 NCAA 1st and 2nd Round Tournament was played at the Center, along with The Phillips 66 2003 and 2004 Men's Big 12 Basketball Tournaments. In March of 2006, the American Airlines Center will host The Phillip's 66 2006 Men's Big 12 Basketball Tournament and the 1st and 2nd Rounds of the Midwest Regional NCAA Basketball Tournament.

Since opening, the Center has not stopped striving to be the best in the industry. The American Airlines Center's website has been upgraded to be extremely user friendly. With over 2,000 hits a day, guests can see the view from their seat for team events and concerts, see a calendar of upcoming events, print out parking directions, sign up for special discounts and event notices, and provide guest feedback to employees. Each Dallas Stars home game is listed on the event calendar and playoff games are added, as dates are determined.

AMERICAN AIRLINES CENTER

In November 2004, Dallas Area Rapid Transit (DART) opened Victory Station on the west side of the American Airlines Center, allowing guests to ride DART directly to the venue for all events. The Trinity Railroad Express (TRE) also provides service from Ft. Worth for events, excluding Sundays.

While the Texas heat blazes outside, inside the American Airlines Center a constant 64-68 degrees keeps the ice in perfect condition. To maintain this temperature, there is a separate chiller system just for the slab, eight miles of one-inch pipe and 320 tons of refrigeration. In addition, a 3,600-ton air-conditioning system and a dehumidification system extract 500 gallons of moisture per hour during the season. The ice is put into place each September and takes 24 hours to build up to the 1-inch depth the players are accustomed to. The ice stays in the Center until the playoffs are complete and is covered up during the season with a special material called, Ice Deck, a fiberglass product that keeps the ice cold and allows the air temperature above to rise without effecting the ice. Recently, the Zamboni was retrofitted with a Fast Ice system, the latest technology that allows the ice maintenance crew to cut the ice quickly in order to keep the ice smooth and fast.

New technology also helps with quicker conversion between basketball and hockey thanks to the most sophisticated retractable seating system ever designed for a sports and entertainment venue. It's a patented design that allows conversion from an ice rink to a basketball court or concert setting in less than three hours.

Fans with disabilities will find 524 accessible seats inside the venue and that all common areas, vendor spaces, retail stores and restaurants follow federal and state requirements for accessibility. Every luxury suite is accessible as are all 20 family restrooms.

American Airlines Center continues to be a leading facility nationally in the area of minority opportunities. After an agreement between team owners and the city to include at least 26 percent representation of minority contractors in building the facility, the project achieved what is believed to be a national-record of 34.5 percent Minority and Women Business Enterprise (M/WBE) participation– earning the operators the highest recognition from the U.S. Department of Commerce for excellence in their M/WBE programs. The Center continues its commitment to M/WBE firms by continuing to exceed the 26 percent goal for its day-to-day operational use.

DR PEPPER STARCENTERS

Since moving to North Texas prior to the 1993-94 NHL season, the Dallas Stars have made it an organizational priority to expose the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex to hockey, and have done so by operating eight Dr Pepper StarCenters throughout the area.

In the summer of 2003, the Stars moved their corporate offices and team practice facility to the Frisco Dr Pepper StarCenter. In November 2004, the Stars opened the Dr Pepper StarCenter and Conference Center in Farmers Branch, bringing the total to eight facilities and 15 sheets of ice.

The flagship facility in Frisco not only serves as the training site for the Stars, but the facility is also the home to the Texas Tornado of the North American Hockey League. Like other StarCenters, it is also utilized for youth, high school & adult hockey leagues, figure skating training & competitions and public skating.

The 211,000 square-foot facility includes more than 15,000 square feet for the team's locker room and workout & rehabilitation area and another 25,000 square feet of offices for the Dallas Stars. It also includes two NHL-size sheets of ice, eight team locker rooms, an arena with approximately 3,700 seats, and a 3,500 square-foot StarStuff store. The Tornado locker rooms and offices comprise an additional 6,000 square feet. Playing in the North American Hockey League, the Tornado have won consecutive Robertson Cup championships and routinely place players on successful Division I collegiate hockey programs. In fact, former Tornado and current Cornell University goaltender David McKee of Irving, Texas, was a finalist for the prestigious Hobey Baker Memorial Award in 2004, awarded the nation's top collegiate player.

"The first step toward having a championship team is making sure they have the best training facility available," said Stars owner Tom Hicks. "The Stars have achieved that goal in Frisco and hope that the quality of the facility will help to lure potential players in the future."

The Dallas Stars are one of the few teams in the NHL to design and build their own practice facility and arena. The team also sets the pace in the NHL among clubs that form partnerships with communities to create public skating facilities, a trend which is picking up momentum around the league. The new facility in Farmers Branch was built in partnership with that city, as were the facilities in Euless and Duncanville. The Stars also have facilities in Grapevine, Irving and two in Plano, one of which is a youth-only facility built in partnership with the non-profit Plano Sports Authority.

When the Stars moved to town more than 12 years ago, there were five total sheets of ice in the area (two of which were at shopping malls and didn't host any sort of hockey). There were no high school or traveling hockey teams and only 250 local children playing the sport. In addition, there were only 225 adults playing in recreational leagues.

Heading into the 2005-2006 season, there are now more than 7,000 North Texas kids playing hockey on 21 sheets of ice in the area. In addition, there are nearly 70 high school hockey teams in the Metroplex, and travel teams at every age and competition level of youth hockey. There are also more than 2,500 adults involved in recreational leagues in the area.

THOMAS O. HICKS

Chairman of the Board & Owner

Six Division Championships, three Western Conference crowns, two Presidents' Trophies as the team with the best regular season record, two consecutive trips to the Stanley Cup Finals and the 1999 Stanley Cup Championship are the highlights of the Dallas Stars' rapid ascent in the 10 years since Thomas O. Hicks contracted to purchase the hockey club in December 1995. Mr. Hicks serves as the Stars' Chairman of the Board and the club's representative on the NHL Board of Governors, and also played an instrumental role in the development and planning of American Airlines Center.

Mr. Hicks has been instrumental in the pursuit and acquisition of a number of big-name players for the Stars since he took ownership of the club. His influence allowed the Stars to trade for Joe Nieuwendyk, who eventually won the Conn Smythe Trophy as Playoff MVP during Dallas' Stanley Cup title season of 1999. He played a significant role in bringing Ed Belfour and Brett Hull, both major contributors on the Stars' Cup-winning team, to Dallas as free agents. During the 2002 offseason, he invested in such marquee names as Bill Guerin and Philippe Boucher, and has clearly been the driving force in the Stars' commitment to remaining among the NHL's elite.

Mr. Hicks, 59, is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Hicks Holdings LLC, a Dallas-based private investment firm, which owns and manages assets in sports and real estate and makes corporate acquisitions. Previously, Mr. Hicks co-founded, and was Chairman from 1989 through 2004, of Hicks, Muse, Tate & Furst, a nationally prominent private equity firm that specialized in leveraged acquisitions. During Mr. Hicks' tenure as Chairman, Hicks Muse successfully raised over $12 billion of private equity funds, consummated over $50 billion of leveraged acquisitions, and was one of the most active private investment firms in the country. The successful acquisitions of Hicks Muse and its predecessor firms included AMFM Inc., A&W Brands, Inc., Berg Electronics, Inc., Dr Pepper/Seven Up Companies, International Home Foods, Inc., Life Partners Group, Pinnacle Foods, Sybron International Corporation, and, Yell Group plc, among others, and had significant ownership in Clear Channel Communications, Inc. and LIN Television.

Hicks Holdings' sports ownership holdings include the Texas Rangers Baseball Club, the Dallas Stars Hockey Club, and a 50% interest in the American Airlines Center. In addition, the firm is a partner with Hillwood Development Company in the Victory Park project in downtown Dallas, and is also developing 200 acres around Ameriquest Field in Arlington whose neighbor will soon be the new Dallas Cowboys Stadium. Hicks Holdings is also developing 40 acres in Frisco, Texas adjacent to the Frisco Sports Complex.

It was June of 1998, when Mr. Hicks became the Chairman and Owner of the Texas Rangers Baseball Club of the Major League Baseball's American League. Under his ownership, the Rangers won the American League West Division crown in both 1998 and 1999. He also serves on the Board of Directors of MLB Advanced Media, the internet-based subsidiary of Major League Baseball.

With strong ties to the community, he has provided continuing support to numerous local organizations, and has also held various charity board memberships. Mr. Hicks was the 1996 co-chair of the Dallas Jewish Coalition for the Homeless "Vogel Alcove" project, and was honored as the recipient of the 2000 Henry Cohn Humanitarian Award for the Anti-Defamation League. He has also been a past recipient of the Father of the Year Award.

The father of six children, Mr. Hicks and his wife Cinda reside in Dallas.

JAMES R. LITES

President

Jim Lites returned as president of the Dallas Stars on November 26, 2002. He was originally named president and alternate governor of the Dallas Stars on June 9, 1993, having served in that role with the team for nine seasons before joining the Phoenix Coyotes in March of 2002.

Returning to Dallas with a reputation as one of the finest administrators in hockey, Lites, 52, oversees all aspects of the Dallas Stars organization, including finances, marketing, advertising, public relations, promotions, ticket sales, budget development and broadcasting agreements. An influential member of the NHL's Board of Governors, he has been on the league's board for 22 consecutive seasons. He is now one of the longest-tenured board members, having served at different times on the NHL's broadcast, expansion, marketing and executive committees. Lites is currently serving on the NHL's "Game Committee", reviewing all aspects of the NHL's game presentation, including rule-making, scoring, media production and technological innovation. He also serves as Chair of the Dallas Stars Foundation.

Since he first joined the Stars, the team has won six Division Championships, three Western Conference Championships, two Presidents' Trophies and the 1999 Stanley Cup. Under Lites' guidance, the Stars popularity has been unmatched by any other sports franchise in Dallas. He also played an active role in the original conception, design, sales and marketing efforts of American Airlines Center.

Lites was named president of the Texas Rangers of Major League Baseball on May 7, 1999, becoming one of four executives in professional sports to head the front office of more than one organization. He was on the board of Major League Baseball for three years, and had the same responsibilities with the Rangers that he had with the Stars before leaving for Phoenix.

During his eight months spent in Phoenix, Lites was president and chief operating officer of the Coyotes, Arena Management Group, LLC, and Coyotes Charities. In these capacities, he oversaw all business operations of the Phoenix organization. He was also instrumental in the design and groundbreaking of the Coyotes' new arena, and in the increase of sponsorship and season ticket sales for the team.

Prior to joining the Stars in 1993, Lites served 11 years as executive vice president of the Detroit Red Wings, who during his stint won three Norris Division Championships and two Norris Division Playoff Championships after having missed the playoffs in 10 of the 11 seasons before his hiring. During his tenure, the Red Wings were named by Financial World magazine as the most valuable franchise in the NHL in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1993. Lites was also instrumental in the defection of former Soviet stars Sergei Fedorov, Vyacheslav Kozlov and Vladimir Konstantinov, each of whom played important parts of the Red Wings' record-setting and Stanley Cup Champion hockey clubs.

While with Detroit, Lites also served as Chief Operating Officer of Olympia Arenas, Inc., one of the Midwest's largest facility management companies. He was also responsible for the redevelopment of Detroit's historic Fox Theatre, now the most successful entertainment venue of its type in the United States and the cornerstone of Detroit's growing northside sports, entertainment and gaming complexes.

Born and raised in Pentwater, Michigan, Lites received a bachelor of arts degree with highest honors from the University of Michigan in 1975 and graduated cum laude from Wayne State (MI) University Law School in 1978. He specialized in litigation and labor contract negotiations when he practiced law.

Lites and his wife Kim reside in Frisco and have four children - son Chase, 22, a junior at Texas A&M, daughter Brooke, 21, a junior at the University of Michigan, son Sam, 16, a junior at Detroit County Day High School and son Chandler, 14, a freshman at Frisco High School.

DOUG ARMSTRONG

General Manager

Hired: January 25, 2002 Birthdate: September 24, 1964

Doug Armstrong begins his fourth full season as general manager for the Dallas Stars and is entering his 15th year with the organization.

Having been appointed to the general manager position on January 25, 2002, Armstrong's first full season resulted in the club's sixth Division Championship in seven years and a Western Conference-high 111 points. Armstrong has been a member of the Stars organization in each of the club's 12 years in Dallas and has helped lead the franchise to two President's Trophies, two Western Conference titles and the 1999 Stanley Cup.

Over his full three seasons as the team's general manager, the Dallas Stars have earned the third-most regular season points in the National Hockey League (208 points with Philadelphia and New Jersey) and have the second-best home record (Detroit). The team accumulated a Western-Conference best 111 points in 2002-03 and finished fifth in the Conference in 2003-2004 with 97 points. Only Detroit (219) and Ottawa (215) have posted more points over those two seasons.

Although the team has finished at or near the top of the Conference standings in his three seasons as the general manager, Armstrong has still not forgotten about the future. He made deals to stockpile 19 draft selections in the first three rounds over the four drafts from 2002-2005 (including the four picks the Stars have in rounds one through three in 2005). Currently, those 19 top picks are the third-most of any team in the league during that time span (only Washington and Edmonton have more). By signing 2004 Hobey Baker Winner Junior Lessard from the University of Minnesota-Duluth and trading for defenseman prospect Shawn Belle, Armstrong has kept one eye on winning now and one eye on winning in the future.

Through his first 196 games as general manager, Armstrong has helped the Stars post a 100-61-35 record for a .599 points percentage. Of the other six general managers in team history, nobody comes close to his record through their first 196 games. Only Bob Gainey (.520 points percentage) and Lou Nanne (.515 points percentage) are above .500 after 196 contests as the franchise's general manager.

Prior to being named the team's seventh general manager, Armstrong served nine years as the assistant general manager under Bob Gainey. As Gainey's assistant, Armstrong worked on contract information and season scheduling, and handled the day-to-day operations of the hockey department.

A native of Sarnia, Ontario, Armstrong is the son of NHL Hall of Fame linesman Neil Armstrong who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1991. Armstrong and his wife Kelly, son Blake, and daughter Kayla, live in Coppell, Texas.

GUY CARBONNEAU

Assistant General Manager

Guy Carbonneau is entering his third season as assistant general manager, following his first season as an NHL assistant coach with the Montreal Canadiens in 2001-02.

Prior to being named to the Canadiens coaching staff on November 20, 2000, Carbonneau held the position of Supervisor of Prospect Development for Montreal for the 2000-01 season. The 18-year NHL veteran announced his retirement as a player in July 2000, following a brilliant career highlighted by three Stanley Cup Championships (1986, 1993, 1999) and three Selke trophies, awarded to the NHL's best defensive forward (1988, 1989, 1992).

The 45-year old Carbonneau, spent his first 12 seasons of his NHL career with the Canadiens from 1982-94, serving as captain from 1989-94. Currently ranking 10th on the Canadiens all-time list in regular season games played (912), he captured his first two cups with Montreal in 1986 and in 1993.

After his tenure with the Canadiens, Carbonneau played the 1994-95 season with the St. Louis Blues, before joining the Dallas Stars in a trade on October 2, 1995. In 364 regular season games with Dallas from 1995-00, he recorded 34 goals and 66 assists for 100 points. He also appeared in 63 playoff games with the Stars posting seven goals and 10 assists for 17 points. Winning his third cup with Dallas in 1999, Carbonneau participated in the playoffs in 17 of his 18 NHL seasons and currently ranks fourth on the NHL's all-time list with 231 career playoff games. In 1,318 career regular season contests, he collected 260 goals and 403 assists for 663 points.

Carbonneau and his wife, Line, have two daughters, Anne-Marie and Kristina.

FRANCOIS GIGUERE

Assistant General Manager

DAVE ALLISON

Head Coach

Dave Allison was hired as the first head coach in Iowa Stars history on May 26, 2005, with more than 15 seasons as a head coach on his resume. He joins the Stars from the Borderland Thunder of the Superior International Junior Hockey League (SIJHL), where he was head coach for the past three seasons, cumulating an 87-44-11-6 record (.645) in his hometown of Fort Frances, Ontario.

Allison has been a part of four expansion franchises in his career: Albany in the IHL, 1990; Grand Rapids in the IHL, 1996; Fort Wayne in the UHL, 1999, and was named Coach of the Year in the ECHL in 1989-90 with Virginia, earning a record of 36-19-6. Players of note that he has developed and coached include Pavol Demitra, Chris Gratton, Brett Lindros, Chad Kilger and Ville Peltonen, among others.

A veteran of 10 seasons as a defenseman in the pros, spent mostly with the development affiliates of three of the most successful organizations in hockey -- the Montreal Canadiens, the Edmonton Oilers and the Toronto Maple Leafs. He won the Turner Cup in 1987 with Muskegon as a player assistant and served as captain for Halifax in 1988-89. Allison served as interim head coach for the NHL's Ottawa Senators for 25 games in 1995-96.

PAUL JERRARD

Assistant Coach

Paul Jerrard was hired as assistant coach on June 14, 2005 and brings more than eight seasons of coaching experience to the Iowa Stars, including the last two as assistant coach with the Hershey Bears of the American Hockey League.

He served as the Colorado Avalanche's assistant coach responsible for video during the 2002-03 NHL season, and coached for four years at his alma mater, Lake Superior State Universit, and one season as assistant coach with the AHL Lowell Lock Monsters

Jerrard spent 10 years as a defenseman in professional hockey, having been drafted by the New York Rangers in the ninth round (173rd overall) of the 1983 Entry Draft. He was traded to the Minnesota North Stars in October, 1988, and skated in five games for Minnesota during the 1988-89 NHL season. He played parts of six seasons with the Stars' then-primary affiliate in Kalamazoo (IHL) and was a member of the 1997 Calder Cup-winning Hershey Bears.

A native of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Jerrard graduated from Lake Superior State in 1987 with a degree in recreational management, with a minor in business administration. Jerrard has earned his strength and conditioning certification and is a member of the National Strength Coaches Association (NSCA).

SCOTT WHITE

Director of Hockey Operations

Scott White was hired as Iowa's director of hockey operations on May 26, 2005, joining the Stars organization after four seasons as head coach of the Columbia Inferno of the ECHL. In Columbia, White was responsible for all of the club's hockey operation activities, including recruiting, scouting, trades and roster moves. White served as an assistant coach with the Greensboro Monarchs (ECHL) for a season and a half, and was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Michigan Tech University, from 1994-1999.

White played five years of professional hockey from 1989-1994, including three seasons with Greensboro, where he won the 1990 ECHL Championship and earned ECHL Defenseman of the Year and First-Team All-ECHL honors for the 1991-92 season. He signed with the NHL expansion Ottawa Senators in 1992 and played the entire season with the club's developmental affiliate in New Haven, capturing team MVP honors after scoring 54 points (10 goals, 44 assists) in 80 games. The Quebec native finished his professional career with 235 points (55 goals, 180 assists) in 190 regular season games and 40 points (8 goals, 32 assists) in 41 playoff games.

IOWA STARS - AMERICAN HOCKEY LEAGUE

The Iowa Stars will begin a five-year affiliation agreement with the National Hockey League's Dallas Stars this fall as Iowa plays their inaugural season in the AHL. As per the affiliation agreement, the Dallas Stars will provide up to 22 players to the Iowa Stars. Dallas will also be responsible for all hockey operation decisions, including the hiring of a head coach, assistant coach, equipment manager and medical trainer.

The Iowa Stars will join 28 other clubs in the AHL, which serves as the top development league for all 30 National Hockey League teams. Entering its 70th season of operation this fall, over 80 percent of all players to compete in the NHL in 2003-04 were AHL graduates, and more than 400 players took the ice in both leagues.

Iowa Stars co-owners Bob Schlegl (right) and Howard Baldwin welcomed Mr. Hockey, Gordie Howe, to Des Moines in July 2005 to help launch the hockey club.

The Iowa Stars will begin play in the AHL in the state-of-the-art Wells Fargo Arena in downtown Des Moines. The venue officially openws on July 6, 2005 and is located in the heart of Iowa's capital city along the banks of the Des Moines River. Along with great sightlines, the Wells Fargo Arena, with a seating capacity of more than 17,000 people for many events, features 600 club seats, 36 corporate suites, a 180-seat restaurant and state-of-the-art video boards. The seating capacity for hockey will be 15,585.

The Wells Fargo Arena, along with the Hy-Vee Hall, Veterans Memorial Auditorium and Polk County Convention Complex, form the Iowa Events Center, a premier state-of-the-art multi-purpose facility for sports, concerts, entertainment, trade shows, conventions and exhibits. This $217 million facility totals more than one million square feet in size. The arena features a panoramic view of the downtown skyline, Des Moines River and the golden capitol dome. The Wells Fargo Arena is managed by Global Spectrum, the fastest-growing firm in the public assembly management field.

This was the first time an NHL team has scored in 15 straight periods since the St. Louis Blues tallied a goal in 20 consecutive periods from Jan. 22 - Feb. 8, 2000 (includes one OT period). The franchise record for consecutive periods with a goal is 18 periods, accomplished three times. Over their 15-period scoring streak, the Stars accumulated 21 goals, averaging 1.4 goals per period.

STARS COLLECTED A NINE-GAME UNBEATEN STREAK: After their 4-0 victory over San Jose on Mar. 7, the Dallas Stars extended their season-long unbeaten streak to nine games (8-0-1-0). The nine-game unbeaten streak, from Feb. 18 - Mar. 7, tied for the eighth longest in franchise history. Over the nine-game unbeaten streak, the Stars outscored their opponents by a 35-13 margin. The team went 10-37 on the power play over this stretch (27.0%) and 26 for 29 on the penalty kill (89.7%). They defeated the Kings in Los Angeles (4-3), Colorado (5-1) and Anaheim (4-0) at home, tied Los Angeles (1-1) and beat Minnesota (3-1), Edmonton (5-4, OT), Columbus (4-2), Calgary (5-1) and San Jose (4-0) on home ice.

Dallas finished the eight games with a 7-0-1-0 mark on the home stand, defeating Colorado (5-1), Anaheim (4-0), tying Los Angeles (1-1) and then beating Minnesota (3-1), Edmonton (5-4, OT), Columbus (4-2), Calgary (5-1), and San Jose (4-0).

THREE STARS APPEAR AT 2004 NHL ALL-STAR GAME: Three Dallas Stars players appeared at the 2004 NHL All-Star Game in Minnesota on Feb. 8. Marty Turco (first start and second appearance), Mike Modano (second start and sixth appearance) and Bill Guerin (second start and third appearance) all started for the Western Conference at the All-Star Game, the first time three Stars started at the game in franchise-history. Turco played the first period of the game, stopping nine of 10 shots. Modano played 16:10 minutes, posting three shots on goal and winning seven of 10 face-offs. Guerin logged 15:25 minutes and registered five shots on goal.

DALLAS EARN 69-GAME UNBEATEN STREAK WHEN LEADING AFTER TWO PERIODS: The Dallas Stars went unbeaten in 69 straight games when heading into the third period with a lead, posting a 61-0-8 mark. Before the Vancouver Canucks rallied from a 3-2 deficit to top Dallas 4-3 in overtime on Mar. 27, the last time the Stars entered the third period with a lead and lost was on Oct. 19, 2002 at St. Louis when Dallas led 3-2 after two periods and lost 5-3. The NHL record for unbeaten streaks when leading after two is held by the Toronto Maple Leafs when they did not lose in 159 straight (136-0-23) from 1960-65.

DALLAS HAD SECOND-BEST JANUARY IN FRANCHISE HISTORY: The Dallas Stars downed the Phoenix Coyotes 5-4 on Jan. 31, ending the month of January with a 9-4-3-0 record. That was the second best January in club history, as the best January ever for the Stars was during the 2002-03 season, when they went 10-1-2-0 in the month of January.

DALLAS TIED THE NHL RECORD BY ALLOWING FEWER THAN 20 SHOTS IN FOUR STRAIGHT GAMES: The Dallas Stars held San Jose to just 17 shots on goal on Jan. 13, extending their streak of allowing 20-or-fewer shots on goal to four consecutive games. The streak came to an end when the Colorado Avalanche registered 22 shots on goal on Jan. 15. But during the four-game streak, the Stars out-shot their opponents 98-71 and went 2-1-1-0. The four-game streak of allowing less than 20 shots tied the NHL record for the most consecutive games allowing less than 20 shots on goal, since the league began keeping shots on goal stats in 1955. Dallas has allowed less than 20 shots in four consecutive games two other times, Feb. 15-21, 1999 and Jan. 2-7, 1998.

STARS KILLED 41 CONSECUTIVE PENALTIES FROM DEC. 10-31: The Dallas Stars' killed off 41 consecutive penalties from Dec. 10-31, before Phoenix's Ladislav Nagy netted a power play goal in the first period on Jan. 2. Going 11 straight games without yielding a power play goal from Dec. 10-31, the Stars had the second longest streak in club-history. The 11-game stretch of penalty killing success raised Dallas' PK percentage from 84.1% for 15th-best in the league entering the streak, to 88.4% for best in the NHL. The Dallas Stars' penalty kill unit killed off 51 of 54 opponent power play opportunities in the month of December for a 94.4% success rate. The unit finished December tied for the 10th-best penalty kill percentage in a calendar month since 1990. During the franchise's first NHL season in 1967-68, the Minnesota North Stars went 14 consecutive contests without giving up a power play goal from Nov. 29-Dec. 27, 1967.

STARS ALLOWED ONE GOAL OR FEWER IN SEVEN STRAIGHT GAMES: The Dallas Stars went seven straight games from Dec. 12-26 allowing one goal or fewer, posting a 5-1-1-0 mark over those seven outings. This tied for the second-longest streak in franchise history, as the longest one goal or fewer allowed streak was when Dallas did it for eight consecutive games from Mar. 13-28, 2001 (two shutouts). The other seven-game streak was from Nov. 20-Dec. 4, 1971. However, Marty Turco is now the only goaltender in franchise history to allow one goal or less in seven consecutive starts and the first in the NHL since John Vanbiesbrouck did so in eight straight starts from Feb. 23-Apr. 16, 1992 with the New York Rangers.

MOST PENALTIES, ONE PERIOD, BOTH TEAMS: *67, 1st pd. vs. Boston, 2/26/81 (NHL record)

On October 14, 1995, the Stars set a franchise record for the fastest three goals in a game, scoring three times in 44 seconds of the final minute of the third period to cap an exciting 6-5 comeback victory over Boston at Reunion Arena. Trailing 5-3, Kevin Hatcher banged home a rebound at 19:11 of the third period to pull the Stars within one goal. At the 19:44 mark, Mike Modano fired a wrist shot past Bruins' goalie Craig Billington to even the score at 5-5. On the ensuing face-off, Mike Kennedy hustled to the corner to Billington's left, dug the puck loose and sent a centering pass to Guy Carbonneau, who fired the puck past Billington at 19:55 for the win. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it is the only game in NHL history that a team trailed by two goals in the final minute of the game and came back to score three goals and win the game in regulation.

#7 NEAL BROTEN 1981-97

Neal Broten finished his NHL career as the most decorated player ever born in the United States. As early as high school he was a champion, taking Roseau High School to three Minnesota State High School Hockey Tournaments. He would go on to lead the University of Minnesota to the 1979 NCAA Championship and was awarded the first-ever Hobey Baker Award as the nation's top collegiate hockey player in 1981. Broten entered history in 1980 as he helped the "Miracle on Ice" U.S. Olympic team win the gold-medal. He was the last member of that squad to play in the NHL.

Broten, fittingly, scored his first career NHL goal in his first career NHL game with the Minnesota North Stars on March 31, 1981 vs. St. Louis. In his first full season, 1981-82, he was named the franchise's Rookie of the Year after setting team records that still stand for most goals, assists and points by a rookie (38-60-98). Sixteen seasons later, Broten retired as the club's all-time leader in games played (992), assists (593) and points (867) and is fourth in team annals in goals (274). The team's Most Valuable Player in 1984 and 1986, Broten participated in the NHL All-Star Game in 1983 and 1986. In that 1985-86 campaign, he became the first American-born player to record 100 points (105) and set the current club mark for assists in a season with 76.

Moving with the team to Texas in 1993, Broten scored the first-ever goal in Dallas Stars history on October 5, 1993 against Detroit. He was dealt by the Stars to New Jersey in February of 1995, where he achieved his remaining goal. Having been to the Stanley Cup Finals twice before with the Stars (1981,1991), he played an instrumental role in the Devils' Stanley Cup victory in 1995, finishing second on that championship club with 19 points (7-12-19) in 20 playoff contests. Broten began the 1996-97 season with New Jersey, and had a brief stint with Los Angeles before the Stars reacquired him off waivers on January 28, 1997. Finishing the season with Dallas, Broten totaled 923 points for his career, the second-highest point total ever for an American-born player behind only Joe Mullen (1,063).

In June of 1996, Broten was honored with USA Hockey's Distinguished Achievement Award and in April of 1997 he was named to the All-Time USA Hockey First Team. In addition, he was selected as USA Hockey's Player of the Decade for 1976-77 to 1985-86 and in the Summer of 1997 was named a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award for outstanding service to hockey in the United States, one of only two players (Ken Morrow) to win the Award twice, having won it the first time as a member of the 1980 gold medal USA team. Broten's number seven was retired by the Stars on February 7, 1998 and he was inducted into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2000.

#19 BILL MASTERTON 1967-68

Bill Masterton was a member of the Minnesota North Stars inaugural NHL team in 1967-68. He played two seasons of professional hockey for Hull-Ottawa of the EPHL in 1961-62 and Cleveland of the American Hockey League in 1962-63. The North Stars retired Masterton's jersey number in memory of the only professional hockey player to lose his life because of an injury suffered during an NHL game. Masterton hit the back of his head on the ice on January 13, 1968 against Oakland, and passed away two days later. The North Stars named the Bill Masterton Memorial Cup Award in his memory, presenting it to the North Stars player voted most valuable by his teammates during the season. Masterton's number 19 has never been worn by another North Star and was retired on January 17, 1987.

#8 BILL GOLDSWORTHY 1967-77

Bill Goldsworthy started his career as a North Star in 1967 when Minnesota selected him from Boston in the 1967 expansion draft. He made his name with the North Stars through goal-scoring and the invention of the Goldy Shuffle. Goldsworthy set marks throughout his career, becoming the first player from a post-1967 team to score 200 goals and the first to score 250. In 1971, Goldsworthy became the team's leading scorer and goal scorer, a mark he held for over a decade. His 48-goal season in 1973-74 was the best ever by a North Star until 1981-82 and he averaged over 30 goals a year during his Stars career. In 1976, Goldsworthy became the first North Star ever to reach the 500-point plateau. In 670 games with Minnesota, he totalled 267 goals, 239 assists for 506 points. Goldsworthy's number eight was retired on February 15, 1992.

STARS TEAM AWARDS

THE BILL MASTERTON AWARD

The Bill Masterton Memorial Award is presented to the Stars player voted by his teammates to be most valuable to the team. It is awarded in memory of the Stars center who died Jan. 15, 1968, as a result of an injury suffered during an NHL game.

EARLY DALLAS HOCKEY HISTORY

Many people do not realize that the roots of professional hockey in Dallas date back to the fall of 1941. It was a strange and unusual site, as the Fair Park Ice Arena welcomed the sport from the North to the citizens of Dallas for the first time. Advertised in the papers as "The most dangerous game in the world...murder on ice, it has been called...with playing speed, flashing blades and crashing bodies," the lights came up on a debut unlike any other.

In the spring of 1941, Clarence E. Linz announced his team, the Texans, would be starting play the next year, joining the American Hockey Association along with a candidate from Fort Worth. As President of Ice Sports, Inc, Linz would become instrumental in not only creating the Texans, but later, bringing in ice shows, including the famous Sonja Henie Ice Show, to the State Fair each fall.

1946-47 DALLAS TEXANS

Taking the helm of the Texans in their inaugural year would be player/coach Leroy "Goldie" Goldsworthy. A former National Hockey League player, he spent nine seasons in the big leagues, scoring 123 total points off of 66 goals and 57 assists while playing for the New York Rangers, Detroit Red Wings, Chicago Blackhawks, Montreal Canadiens, Boston Bruins and New York Americans. It was through his many years with the NHL that he hoped to be able to find players with experience who could help him in his new endeavor.

Of the original team, only Paul Runge and Pete Palangio had seen time in the NHL, with Paul playing from 1930 to 1938 with Boston, the Montreal Maroons and the Montreal Canadiens while Pete suited up for the Canadiens, Red Wings and Blackhawks from 1926 to 1938.

On November 6, 1941, hockey made its debut in Dallas with the first of 50 games, 25 at home. Fans could get in the game for the mere general admission price of 55 cents. Three thousand reserve seats were available from 80 cents up to $1.20, while boxes and rinkside seats would run you anywhere from $1.65 to $2.25.

Opening night was truly a spectacular gala. With World War II raging, Linz made the decision that 50% of the proceeds would be donated to the United China Relief Fund. Organized by Mrs. William M. Lingo, Jr. and the Dallas Club women, they hoped to raise $2,500 during the evening with Chinese candies and cakes sold by girls in Chinese costumes during the game. First time patrons to hockey, must surely have been somewhat confused by the multi-cultural surroundings of this strange sport.

Matching up against the St. Paul Saints in their inaugural game, the Texans played in front of a near capacity crowd of 4,273. Tony Licari scored the team's first goal, but the Saints, behind three power play goals, stole the home team's thunder by winning the game 4-1. George Higgins, President of the American Hockey Association, pronounced the game a success and was pleased with the condition of the arena and the number of spectators.

The season continued with Dallas fighting, many times literally, for a playoff spot. Going into the final night of the season, Dallas remained one point ahead of Tulsa for the final playoff spot. The Texans had been clinging to a three point lead, only to see it evaporate after a 4-2 loss to St. Paul in front of 2,500 fans on honorary newspaper boy night. Dallas would go home early in their inaugural year, losing out on the money to be made in the postseason. In the playoffs, the major share of the gate receipts went directly to the players.

It would be the last time many of these men would come to Dallas. The horrors of World War II and the continued involvement of the United States and Canada forced the cancellation of hockey in the south and meant the end of the American Hockey Association.

Dallas would not see hockey again for four years.

Hockey was back in "Big D" for the 1945-46 season, as Linz once again brought the Texans to life, this time joining the Kansas City Pla-mors, Omaha Knights, St. Paul Saints, Tulsa Oilers, Fort Worth Rangers and Minneapolis Millers in the United States Hockey League.

The fight to make the Texans had been tough as those who were cut would go to Eastern League teams where the salaries were nearly one-half of those in the USHL.

On October 10, 1945, Linz announced Leroy Goldsworthy would return as coach and introduced the team's first player, 20-year-old goaltender Al Picard. Goldsworthy rated the youngster so highly, he expected to sell him at the end of the season to an NHL club.

With Roy McBride the oldest man on the team at 24, many of the players ranged in age from 17 to 20. Only Lloyd Finkbeiner had seen action in the NHL, playing one game with the New York Americans in 1940-41 and going scoreless, while only Hugh Currie ever would in the future. During the 1950-51 season, he played in one game for Montreal, going scoreless.

Opening night brought a crowd of 4,300. Fans were able to purchase their rinkside seats for a mere $2.00 while others ranged from $1.00 to $1.50 with general admission at 70 cents. It was an exciting and hard fought contest as the home favorites beat Tulsa 5-3, having been led by Lou Smrke who tallied a hat trick with three goals.

The heroics and joy of opening night were short-lived. The 1945-46 season proved to be a roller-coaster ride of ups and downs. At the end of February, the Texans set a new league record of two consecutive losses by the largest margin, having been defeated by Kansas City 13-1 and then Tulsa 12-1. In their next two games, the club set a new league record for two consecutive wins by the largest margin, beating both Kansas City and Minneapolis 10-2. Such was the '45-46 season.

The rivalry with Fort Worth continued as former Texan Paul Runge now coached the Rangers. The two teams met for the last time on March 13 in front of 4,204 people in Fort Worth and played to a 3-3 tie. New goalie Nick Pidsodny stopped 50 shots on the night, including 11 in the 10 minute overtime.

The season ended on March 19, 1946. The Dallas Morning News announced this as "the biggest hockey season this city has ever had." In the final game, the Texans faced league leader Kansas City in front of a near capacity crowd of 5,000. It was rumored that the Pla-mors wanted to run up the score to show their dominance heading into the postseason. The home town team caught wind of this plan and set out to foil it. Playing what the paper called, "the fastest and most rugged athletic competition ever unreeled on a local battlefield," the Texans gave Kansas City a 5-1 lashing.

The 1946-47 team brought in new players as well as a new coach while the league accepted a new team - the Houston Huskies. George Boothman was signed on to take the helm for Dallas as well as play center for the club after captaining the Buffalo Bisons to the AHL Championship in 1946.

The Texans proved to be one of the strongest in the USHL that year. After winning their opener on October 24, 8-4, over Tulsa, behind John MacKenzie's two goals in 20 seconds, they came back and defeated Omaha, 2-1, in front of 4,100 fans to jump into first place.

First place is where they remained throughout the season. Despite the replacement of Murray Armstrong for George Boothman as player/coach, the team finished on top of the Southern Division with a 27-18-15 record and 69 points.

In the post-season, Dallas entered as the top team in the Southern Division, but due to the scheduling format, was forced to play the best team in the league, the Omaha Knights, who had a 29-16-15 record. The Texans dropped the series to Omaha in six contests.

With the start of 1947-48 season, a few changes were in store for the league and in particular the Texans. Jim Hendy took over as the new President of the USHL while on the local scene, Lex Cook took over coaching duties for the Dallas club.

Another difference for the Texans was their agreement to be for the first time a farm team for the powerful Montreal Canadiens of the NHL. Despite this seemingly quality improvement though, the Texans were in for a rough year.

Points would come hard for the Texans as they finished with the worst record in the league that season at 21-39-6 for only 48 points. Leading scorer for the club was Gord Petrie with 62 points off of 13 goals and 49 assists while Nick Pidsodny was the top netminder on the team with a 4.18 GAA, 10th in the league. For the season-ending All Star squad, Jake Milford, a player/assistant coach for the Texans, was the only member named, earning a spot on the First Team.

The Texans inter-state rival from Houston took home the Paul W. Loudon Trophy as league champions, defeating Minneapolis three games to two.

Things could only get better for the local team when the 1948-49 campaign opened. Lex Cook was returning as coach of the Texans with the Montreal Canadiens still providing some exciting skaters to stock the club.

A bright, new addition to the team was Joe Bell, who was sent down from Montreal after playing parts of two years with the New York Rangers in the NHL. In his 62 games in the big-time, he had totaled 17 points (8-9-17). Also, coming to Dallas was the fiery goaltender Paul Bibeault.

TEXANS ACTION FROM 1947-48

In his seven seasons in the NHL from 1940 to 1947, he recorded 3.65 goals against average while playing in a combined 297 games for Montreal, Toronto, Boston and Chicago.

Introduced to members of the media by officials of the Ice Cycles of 1948, an exhibit at the Texas State Fair, the team also featured newcomers George Bougie, Jimmy Moore and a young kid name Howie Morenz, Jr. - the son of the Hall of Famer who played with Montreal, Chicago and New York from 1923 to 1937.

With the season starting, the Texans were one of the youngest clubs on the circuit, featuring no less than six players making their professional debuts. Because of this, coach Cook pleaded with the Canadiens to send down some help for the home opener. Montreal responded with Roger Leger, Todd Campeau, Jacques Richard and Jimmy Galbraith. Leger, who played with Montreal the previous season when they went to the Stanley Cup Finals, volunteered to go to Dallas so he could take off some of the weight he had acquired over the off-season.

By the time the Texans rolled into town for their home-opener, they were already in last place with a 1-3-1 record. Squee Allen was now suffering from a broken leg and was out. And netminder Bibeault, who was called "belligerent" by the local media, was leading the league, in of all things, penalty minutes and, prior to their home game with St. Paul, was stricken with Pleurisy and wasn't able to suit up.

But Lex Cook's prophesies that "once this young team gets their feet wet, they'll be something," began to come true. By season's end, the Texans had surged into second place in the Southern Division, finishing with a 24-27-15 record with 63 points. Gordie Petrie once again led the team in points, finishing fifth in the league with 24-57-81. Joe Bell (37-38-75) and Dennis Filion (22-38-60) also ended among league leaders, while Bibeault recorded a 3.78 goals-against average with two shutouts. He would end up winning both the Herman W. Peterson Cup for Most Valuable Player and the Charles Gardiner Memorial Trophy as the USHL's best goaltender.

Named to the season-end All Star Team were Bibeault, as the First Team goalie, and Tom Rockey, the USHL's leading defenseman scorer, and Joe Bell as Second Team All-Stars.

In the playoffs, the Texans faced off on March 22, 1949 against their rivals from Fort Worth in their best two out of three quarterfinal series. The Rangers had won six of their last seven going into the post-season while Dallas had lost five of their last seven.

Roles would be reversed, however. Behind Joe Bell's hat trick and the outstanding play of Bibeault in net, Dallas handed Fort Worth an 8-0 loss in the opening game in front of 4,000 fans. The shutout was the first in USHL playoff history, proving to doubters that the feisty netminder deserved his awards.

After winning the second game 5-3, Dallas moved on to Tulsa in the semi-finals who were the Southern Division champs during the regular season. The Oilers quickly disposed of the upstart Texans, knocking them off 4-1 in both games to move into the finals. It was the St. Paul Saints, winners of the Northern Division with 82 points, who took home the title though, defeating Tulsa four games to one.

The end of the 1948-49 season brought the end of professional hockey to the Dallas area. Due to increased travel costs, Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston all dropped out of the USHL. The league would thrive for two more seasons, adding teams from Louisville, Milwaukee and Denver, before finally bowing out all together after the 1950-51 campaign.

Upon their withdrawal from the USHL, the three Texas teams made plans to form an new league, along with Wichita, called the Texas Hockey Association. Chrys Kelly of Dallas was to serve as President with the league expanding into places like San Antonio, Shreveport and New Orleans by 1950. The new organization, though, failed to materialize, leaving Dallas without professional hockey for the next 18 years.

Before the Stars arrived in Dallas for the 1993-94 season, the Central Hockey League operated a team in Dallas from 1967-1982 called the Dallas Blackhawks, a minor league affiliate of the Chicago Blackhawks. The CHL returned for two seasons in 1992-93 and 1993-94 with the Dallas Freeze before that club ceased operations.

NEW NHL RULES FOR 2005-2006

DIMENSIONS OF THE RINK: The neutral-zone edges of the blue lines will be positioned 64 feet from the attacking goal line and 75 feet from the end boards in the attacking zone. There will be an additional four feet in each of the offensive zones between the goal line and blue lines. The goal lines will be positioned 11 feet from the end boards, two feet closer to the end boards than previously. The goal line had been at 13 feet since 1998-99. The size of the neutral zone will be reduced to 50' from 54'.

CENTER RED LINE ELIMINATED FOR TWO-LINE PASSES: Passes from behind the defensive blue line to the attacking blue line will be considered legal. The center red line will be ignored for purposes of the "two-line pass."

OFFSIDE: If while an offside is delayed, the linesman shall nullify the offside if all players of the offending team clear the zone by making skate contact with the blue line, permitting the attacking players to re-enter the zone or if the defending team passes or carries the puck into the neutral zone. The "tag-up" rule was previously used from 1986-87 through 1995-96.

RESTRICTIONS ON GOALIE HANDLING THE PUCK: A goaltender may not play the puck outside a designated area behind the net. This area is defined by lines that begin on the goal line, six feet from each goal post, and extend diagonally to points 28 feet apart at the end boards. Should a goalie play the puck outside this area behind the goal line, a minor penalty for delay of game will be imposed. The determining factor will be the position of the puck.

ICING THE PUCK: A team that ices the puck will not be permitted to make any player substitutions prior to the ensuing face-off. The determination of players on-ice will be made when the puck leaves the offending player's stick. "Touch" icing will remain the practice, although the Linesman will have discretion to wave off apparent icing infractions if they are deemed receivable.

INSTIGATOR RULE: A player who instigates a fight in the final five minutes of regulation time or at any time of overtime, will receive a minor, a major, a misconduct and an automatic one-game suspension. The length of suspension would double for each additional incident. As well, the player's Coach will be fined $10,000 – a fine that would double for each such incident.

GOALTENDER EQUIPMENT: The dimensions of goaltender equipment will be reduced by approximately 11 percent. In addition to a one-inch reduction (to 11") in the width of legpads, the blocking glove, upper-body protector and pants also will be reduced in size.

SHOOTOUT: Following a scoreless five-minute overtime, three players from each team participate in the order the coach selects. The teams alternate shots. The team with the most goals after each team has taken three shots is declared the winner, unless the outcome is determined earlier in the shootout (example: if Team A is ahead 2-0 after each team has taken two shots). If the score remains tied, the shootout will proceed to a "sudden-death" format. No player may shoot twice until everyone who is eligible has shot. Regardless the number of goals scored during the shootout portion of overtime, the final score recorded for the game will give the winning team one more goal than its opponent, based on the score at the end of overtime. No individual statistics will be awarded from performance in a shootout (e.g. no goals - or game-winning goals - credited to scorer; no saves or goals against charged to a goaltender). Also, a goalie will not be charged with a loss to his record should he lose in overtime (this is a change from 2003-04 season) or in a shootout. Instead, such a decision would be added to the goalie's OT column (e.g. same as team standings - GP W L OT).

DELAY OF GAME: When any player, while in his defending zone, shoots the puck directly (non-deflected) out of the playing surface, except where there is no glass, a penalty will be assessed for delaying the game. When the puck is shot into the players' bench, the penalty will not apply. When the puck is shot over the glass behind the players' bench, the penalty will be assessed.

DIVING: In addition to the minor penalty for diving that may be assessed by the Referee during a game, Hockey Operations will review game videos and assess fines to players who dive or embellish a fall or a reaction, or who feign injury in an attempt to draw penalties. The first such incident will result in a warning letter being sent to the player. The second such incident will result in a $1,000 fine. The third such incident will result in a $2,000 fine. The fourth such incident will result in a one-game suspension.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

DETERMINING A GOALIE'S OR TEAM'S GOALS-AGAINST-AVERAGE: Multiply total number of goals allowed by 60, and divide that figure by minutes played.

DETERMINING A GOALIE'S OR TEAM'S SAVE PERCENTAGE: Subtract total goals against from total shots against to get total number of saves made. Divide total number of saves made by total number of shots against.

DETERMINING POWER PLAY PERCENTAGE: Total number of power play goals divided by total number of power play opportunities.

DETERMINING PENALTY KILLING PERCENTAGE: Subtract total number of power play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power plays killed. Divide total number of power plays killed by total number of shorthanded situations.

DETERMINING A PLAYER'S OR TEAM'S SHOOTING PERCENTAGE: Divide total goals scored by total number shots taken.

SHORTHAND GOAL: A goal scored by a Club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

ASSIST: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

GAME PLAYED: A player receives credit for playing in a game if he either steps on the ice during time played or serves any penalty.

SHUTOUT: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a Club shutout.

PLUS-MINUS: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his team scores an even-strength or shorthanded goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthanded goal scored by the opposing team. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

SHOT ON GOAL: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

GAME-WINNING GOAL: The goal that gives the winning team one more goal than the losing team.

CONSECUTIVE GAME, GOAL, ASSIST, POINT-SCORING STREAK: In addition to being discounted whenever a player fails to record the goal or assist needed to extend a streak in a given game, the streak shall be terminated whenever the player fails to appear in a game.

TENTHS OF A SECOND: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a goal is scored with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47).

ROOKIE STATUS: A player shall be considered a rookie if he has not played in 25 or more games during any single preceding season, or not in six or more games during any two preceding seasons.

ROSTER LIMITS: Each team dresses 18 skaters (generally 12 forwards and six defensemen) and two goaltenders per game. A team may carry up to 23 players at a time.

TRADING DEADLINE: 2:00 CST of the 26th day before the final day of the NHL regular season marks the deadline for trades between NHL teams. This date also marks the deadline for loans and recalls from minor league teams. This season's deadline falls on March 9.

TIE BREAKING PROCEDURES: In the event of a tie in standing points, these steps determine which team shall finish in the higher position: 1) Most wins, 2) Most points earned in season series between the two tied teams (points earned in the first game played in the city that has the extra game shall not be included), 3) Differential in total goals scored and total goals allowed over full 82-game schedule.

COACHES RECORD: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

GOALTENDER RECORD: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

STARS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Dallas Stars take great pride in their accomplishments on the ice, but are just as proud of their off-ice efforts to make our community a better place to live. The Stars support charitable programs that enhance the lives of our youth and serve other members of the Dallas/Ft. Worth Metroplex.

Hope for the Holidays
During the holidays, the Dallas Stars and Texas Rangers hold a baby care item drive benefiting Captain Hope's Kids. Items such as diapers, baby clothes and blankets are collected in November and December, and distributed to homeless infants and toddlers throughout the Metroplex.

Hospital Visits
The Stars strive to bring hope and happiness to families in need, particularly during the holiday season. The Stars players visit Children's Medical Center of Dallas and Cook Children's Hospital in Fort Worth each year to sign autographs, take photos with the kids, and hand out holiday gifts.

Dallas Stars Foundation

The Dallas Stars Foundation was established to serve as a positive force throughout the Dallas/Ft Worth Metroplex. The Foundation focuses its efforts on providing support to children of the community so they may lead quality lives and develop into contributing members of society. Through teamwork, interaction, and education, the Dallas Stars Foundation works to bring together all members of the Metroplex and build a bright future for today's youth. Foundation events and programs include the following:

Grants and Scholarships
Twice each season, the Dallas Stars Foundation makes monetary grants to local children's charities in support of a variety of programs. In the past eight years, the Foundation has donated over $1.9 million in grants. The Foundation annually awards Jr. Stars and Star Champions Scholarships to young hockey players and figure skaters who train at DrPepper StarCenters. The Foundation also awards the Bob Gainey Honorary Scholarship to a very deserving Metroplex high school senior each spring based on his/her academic performance, community involvement and financial need.

Wyndham Anatole/Dallas Stars Face-Off Luncheon
The Stars officially begin their season with the Face-Off Luncheon at The Wyndham Anatole Hotel in Dallas in October. Attendees are given the opportunity to dine with the Stars players and coaches, while the Stars broadcast team provides entertaining player interviews.

Park Place/Dallas Stars Casino Night
In February 2006, the Stars will hold their 8th Annual Park Place/Dallas Stars Casino Night, an evening of fun and elegance featuring the Stars players as guest casino dealers. The event also includes autographs and photos with the players, a cocktail buffet courtesy of Maggiano's Little Italy, spectacular live and silent auctions and great casino prizes.

NHL StreetStars
This off-ice league-wide initiative provides youth with an inexpensive recreational alternative while cultivating a new generation of hockey playing fans. StreetStars, which currently operates in 14 centers in the Metroplex, allows over 1,500 children to learn and practice street hockey skills, play in organized games and receive playbooks designed to reinforce the rules of the game. Each StreetStars annual season culminates with the Metroplex Championships in the spring.

Stars I.C.E.
The Stars I.C.E. (Inner-City Experience) program allows children in low-income, at-risk areas of the Metroplex to experience the excitement of ice hockey. Over one hundred children from throughout the area participate in a day of skating and hockey at Dr Pepper StarCenters and have the opportunity to apply for additional complimentary ice hockey instruction. The program emphasizes to children the importance of working towards goals and believing in themselves.

Guests at the Park Place/Dallas Stars Casino Night enjoy casino dealers like Jason Arnott.

Dr Pepper Luncheon Series at Maggiano's Little Italy
In January, February and March, the Stars host luncheons at Maggiano's Little Italy in Northpark to benefit the Foundation. The luncheons provide a casual, intimate setting in which guests may ask questions of the Stars players, coaches and management.

Dallas Stars / Fort Worth Zoo Calendar
The Dallas Stars and animals from the Fort Worth Zoo are featured in this calendar, the proceeds of which benefit the Dallas Stars Foundation and the charitable foundation of the zoo. Calendars are available beginning in November.

RadioShack Stick With Reading
In an effort to combat the problem of illiteracy, the Foundation has developed the RadioShack Stick With Reading program. Since its inception in 1998, over 155,000 Metroplex students have participated in the program, which gives children the chance to win incentive prizes and a visit from a Stars player by recording their extracurricular reading over a six-week period.

StarSchool
The Dallas Stars feature educational programs on their website (www.dallasstars.com). The site provides weekly lessons on geography, mathematics, physics and literature for kids of all ages.

Marty Turco fields questions from students during a Stick With Reading classroom visit.

Guaranty Bank/Whataburger Stick With Writing
The Guaranty Bank/Whataburger Stick With Writing story and illustration contest is open to public, private, and home-schooled students in grades k-4. First, second, and third place winners in each grade category receive backpacks full of art and writing supplies, and the top winners are honored at a Stars game.

Newspapers in Education
In conjunction with The Dallas Morning News, the Foundation sponsors a Newspapers in Education Character Education program. Lessons appear in the Texas Living section of the paper each week for January through March. Using the Dallas Stars players as examples, this curriculum addresses such topics as impartiality, prudence, selflessness, dependability, optimism, integrity, temperance, and forgiveness. Thousands of students across North Texas participate in the program each year.

High School Media Day
Every fall, high school journalism students are invited to take a tour of the team's practice facility, enjoy lunch, watch a Stars practice and take part in a question and answer session with members of the local media and select Stars players. The students then return to their schools and write articles on the experience for their school newspapers. The Stars select a winning article, the author of which is invited to sit in the American Airlines Center pressbox during a Stars game.

Donate-A-Skate
The Dallas Stars Foundation and DrPepper StarCenter offer the Donate-A-Skate program through which free skate parties are donated to qualified charity organizations. Each month one charity will be chosen, and their representatives, volunteers and service recipients will be invited to enjoy skating at a Metroplex Dr Pepper StarCenter complete with refreshments and Stars goodies.

Tickets for Kids
Season ticket holders are encouraged to return to the Stars any game tickets they are unable to use. The Dallas Stars Foundation then donates them to sick or underprivileged children who would otherwise be unable to attend Stars games. Hundreds of children have been able to enjoy Stars games through this program over the last several seasons.
